Sub: Pension - Payment of provisional Pension and gratuity - reg.

The Tamil Nadu Pension Rules provide for the advance action to be taken by the Heads of Office and Audit Officers to ensure that the amount of pension and gratuity payment order is issued not later than a

Rules 59 and 66 of Tamil Nadu Pension Rules, 1978 provides for the payment of anticipatory Provisional Pension and Gratuity to Gazetted and Non-Gazetted Government employees respectively. If the Heads of the office is of the opinion that the Government servant is likely to retire before his pension or gratuity or both can be finally assessed and settled in accordance with relevant rules, he shall take expeditious steps to sanction upto 100% of pension and gratuity as provisional pension and provisional gratuity in respect of Non-gazetted officers and upto 100% of pension as provisional pension and 80% of the admissible gratuity as provisional gratuity in respect of gazetted officers.

2. Time and again these provisions have been brought to the notice of Administrative Departments of Secretariat/Heads of Departments. This aspect has been stressed in the Salient features of Tamil Nadu Pension Rules brought out in G.O.Ms.No.1227, Finance (Pension), dt.19.11.1985 and communicated to all Departments. In the above G.O., it has also been made clear that in cases where the pension papers have been sent to audit in time but pension pay order has not been issued a fortnight before the retirement of the Non-Gazetted staff, the Head of the office must invariably arrange payment of provisional pension by first of the month in which it is due. It is the intention of the Government that no retired official shall be left without pension on the date it becomes due.

3. Representations have been received by Government that Heads of Offices are not sanctioning and paying provisional pension and gratuity, as contemplated in rules. This is causing a great deal of available hardship to the retiring government servants.

4. The Government have taken a serious view of these complaints that the provision of statutory rules are not being observed. I am, therefore, to request you to ensure that there is no occasion for complaints of non-payment of provisional pension and provisional gratuity in future from the retiring employees and to follow the prescribed procedure in letter and spirit. Accountability in this will rest with the head of the office concerned.

5. If any Government employee are on retirement is not sanctioned provisional pension and provisional gratuity, pending final determination of his/her pension and issue of pension payment order, he/she may send a complaint to the Special Commissioner and Secretary to Government, P&AR(PGC) Department for taking immediate action.

The Government would like to ensure that the retiring employees should on their retirement normally receive the final sanction of pensionary benefits and that if delay in issuing of final pension payment order is unavoidable, at least the benefits of provisional pension and provisional gratuity should be allowed as contemplated in the Rules.

6. These instructions do not apply to cases falling under Rule 9 of Tamil Nadu Pension Rules and corresponding provisions applicable to All India Service Officers.

7. Receipt of this letter may kindly be acknowledged.
